“ I am praying that God will give you the inner strength to endure the sadness that has been abruptly placed on you. Jeff was a person who touched many lives. But the most important aspect of his life was that he knew his LORD.

“ Most of us had a tendency to look up to some of the older students when we were in school. Some times our admiration might end up being misplaced as we got older and became adults. I was three years behind Jeff at Worth Academy and he never disappointed. Kind, even to we younger kids, considerate, respectful, reliable, and just an overall good guy without the huge ego someone of his many attributes might typically have. Over the many years I've been away from Worth County, my parents would mention seeing Jeff and what a nice person he was and I'd tell them "he was always one of my favorites." I will never forget six or seven of us "young'uns" got together one day and we wanted 'adult like" Jeff to tell us how babies were made. He was probably in about the 8th grade but to 5th and 6th graders that's "old". He asked a few of us what we thought and I can remember he just smiled and didn't mock us. No one got the answer and as I think about it today, I'd LOL on some of the responses for sure. However, being mature and responsible beyond his years, even at a very young age himself, he told us we had to ask our Mamas or Daddys. "well we can't do that, Jeff, why do you think we are asking you?" We tried multiple questions, give us some hints, he wouldn't talk. He just laughed and while walking away said "you've got to talk to your Mama or Daddy or at least your grandparents. I am not telling you!" We can all remember Jeff with a smile on our face and in our hearts. He lived his life, well. Now, may he rest in eternal peace. Art Sutton, Toccoa, Georgia. (Worth Academy Class of 1980.)
