“ We saw Mr.Bo a few days after the hurricane, he was working at Harveys in Tifton and when we asked how much longer he planned to work and he stated until God calls me home. It was always a pleasure to see him so happy at his work.

“ To the family of Bo, George and I send our deepest sympathies. Bo will surely be missed at McDonald's every morning where he and George and the rest of the group drank their coffee and talked about what was going on in Sylvester or surrounding communities. I '(Kay Coker) have surely missed him since Harvey's closed. I always had to stop and talk to him and he would tell me about some prank George pulled on him. Bo told me that George laid down on the floor one time at McDonald's when he saw Bo coming and started hollering that Bo knocked him down. He thought that was so funny. One time when George and I were in Harvey's Bo and I were talking and George walked up and told Bo to quit flirting with his wife. Of course Bo laughed because he knew George was just playing around. I could go on and on. We both loved Bo so much. He was one of the nicest, sweetest, and most generous men we have ever had the pleasure of knowing and calling a friend. There will always be a hole in our hearts where Bo would be. God bless all of you in this time of sorrow. I know you will miss him too. Goodbye Bo. We love you and will miss you.
