“ I knew Sharon in college when she lived across the hall from me. We remained good friends for awhile after college but because of my husband's USAF career, we just drifted apart. Today I was talking to a lady from Ashburn and she knew the Rouse family. I asked her what happened to Sharon and she told me she thought she passed away. After I got over the shock, the reality of her death has settled in. I'm heartbroken!

“ I was Sharon's roommate at UGA when she was a sophomore and I was a freshman. She was a helpful, loyal friend to me all many others, always willing to help with any problem that arose. She was an exemplary student so I am sure she had to be an excellent teacher. The thing I remember the most during those days was how faithfully Sharon read her Bible. No matter what time she went to bed, she read her Bible first. I have not seen her in a long time, but the last time I did see her she was the same as she had always been. I am so, so sorry to learn that she is gone. Know that you are in my thoughts and in my prayers during this difficult time.

“ For some odd reason, your mother was on my mind today and I googled her. Sharon and I were friends at UGA and she was a bridesmaid in my wedding in 1967. My roommate, MaLinda, and I had asked one another from time to time if we had heard from Sharon or knew where she was now. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. We had many, many good times together during those 2 years. But her driving scared us! Treasure the good memories you have of her. She was a very special person.
