“ My deepest sympathies for you all! Luke, Ron, Mr. Jim, Melissa, Claudia, Jamie, Nicole, kids, and Alicia’s best friends, my heart is broken along with you all! Alicia was one of the sweetest, kindest people and never would let me forget that we were “sisters from other misters”! We always would joke about how Luke was my nephew and my boys were her nephews all because Luke asked her several years ago if we were kin because we could pass for sisters! Anytime we ever saw each other it was a big hug and smile! She’d never leave a conversation without telling me “love you” as I’m sure she did the same with her family and friends she cared most about! She will be missed more than words could ever tell! I know that there was a grand meeting in Heaven with Mrs Brenda and all of her loved ones and I pray that each of you hold on to the promise that we will all see that beautiful smile again one day! Love, hugs, and prayers to every one of you!

“ We are heartbroken to learn of Alicia's passing. Taken too soon. I remember the little girl I knew when I stayed with the family for a couple of weeks in 1979, so sweet. Even though we were cousins we didn't know each other well as adults, but she grew into a beautiful woman and mother. Too much grief in the Jennings family recently. Praying for you all.

“ Alicia and my daughter Sharla were nursery buddies. Born on the same day, same year, same hospital. I lost Sharla 7 years ago and I feel like I lost her again. Alicia came into my life when I trained her at Phoebe Home Care. We connected instantly. She was beautiful, intelligent, most caring person in the world. The world is a little darker now. Rest In Peace my special friend. I know your in heaven with your Momma and Sharla with God’s arms around you. I will miss you
