“ I am so sorry to hear of Amanda's passing. Such a beautiful lady! I know she will be dearly missed by all who loved her very much. She is now completely free to soar without the constraints of this earth. She helped each of you grow in ways no one else could, just as you did her. My prayers for peace for you all.

“ We were playing softball behind her grandmother’s house, when we were teenagers. Amanda was hitting. I was pitching. She hit a line drive at me. I shifted my hip out of the way, but for some reason shifted it back just in time to get hit. We laughed so hard. She kept bringing it up for several years. I will always remember the fun we had together as kids.

“ Oh boy. This is so hard but my cousin, same age, died this week. I found out Friday and I'm in total shock. I don't know how I'm going to start my morning and end my day without talking to her. We were truly like and acted as though we we're sisters for forty-eight years. She was the funniest person that I have ever met. We got each other. She and I had our issues but we loved each other. We always said we were going to grow old with each other cussing while laughing on the swing. Yeah, we kept Aunt Janice Carter busy at grandma' s and granddaddy house! She let us skinny dip at night while the lights in the pool were on. We stayed in the pool for hours. Remember staying up all night plundering and making blueberry pancakes at four in the morning and made coffee along with our breakfast? Oh my goodness, and when we we're working together at the Plantation Grill. We were born to be wild together and got in trouble but we had our own little world when we were together. Oh, lol, I can recall me flying backwards into the wall while feeding Lauren!! That was a dangerous recliner but we busted out laughing after we made sure Lauren was okay! Amanda Land, Amanda Carter, I'll miss you forever but I know you're watching from above singing Burning Down the House by Talking Heads, rapping to Beastie Boys and smiling to James Taylor, leaves me in some peace. I'll be behind you one day hopefully a long time from now. We can play our game, "most embarrassing moments" again. I'll keep you up to date on that!! I have talked to you since, well, since mama told me you left us all. Tell Jerry, Townsend and ALL of our loved one's we loved so much, I said hello and I love them so dearly. We DID have a great childhood with our grandparents and family. We just had to learn earlier in life issues most couldn't understand in life ,ever. God made you so strong. Mama always said we were strong, but you,...yeah, you were strong in most everything that you had to endure in your short and young life. Listen up, I will always have your back. You were a great, beautiful woman and so smart okay? Please note that. I freaking love you and already miss you. Im so angry but I know your suffering has been lifted from your lonely soul. Now, I tip my hat off to you with your smile and laughter so everlasting on my heart and soul forever and always. You can swim all day now...CAN YOU PASTE THIS ON THE OBITUARY
