

Ann Seccombe Zupko

September 26, 1951 - February 4, 2026

Mrs. Ann Seccombe Zupko, 74, died on Wednesday, February 4, 2026, at Willson Hospice House.

Per her wishes, she was cremated and no services are planned at this time.

Mrs. Zupko was born on September 26, 1951, in Kalamazoo, Michigan, to the late David Alan Seccombe and Nina Kathryn Flora. She had lived in Worth County since 1997. Mrs. Zupko was a Beautician who enjoyed creating custom baby blankets for others. She enjoyed sewing and quilting with her dear friend Karen Cross and other members of her Sewing Guild. Mrs. Zupko loved to travel on trips with her family and regale her friends with the adventures she had on those trips.

Survivors include her sons, Eric Zupko (Laura), Erin Zupko (Sabrina), and Evan Zupko (Naomi); grandchildren, Brianna Zupko Brown (Tristan), Eyan Zupko, Makenzie Zupko, Treveus Bogs (Allysa), Gabriela Zupko, Aidan Zupko, Russell Burk, Summer Burk, and Haley Burk; great-grandchildren, Gwynevere Bogs, Midas Bogs, and Warren Harrell; brother, Chip Schroeder (Jeannie); sister, Janie Breaux; her Sewing Guild friends; and a number of extended family members and friends.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Zupko was preceded in death by her husband, Richard Zupko, Jr. on April 30, 2014; and a brother, Thomas Seccombe on November 7, 2022.

Banks Funeral Home in Sylvester is in charge of arrangements.
