“ Sorry to hear about Pete’s passing. I used to work in Sylvester and we would cross paths regularly. I really enjoyed talking fishing with him. When I would ask him how many he caught, he would always say “I caught a five gallon bucket full”

“ I remember him coming to get me when I was little taking me to McDonald's for my bacon biscuit with cheese and a hashbrown. When we were ordering the food I begged him for an extra hashbrown. He told me I wouldn't eat it all but got it for me anyways. Needless to say I ate the hashbrowns and not the sandwich. I will be forever grateful for him taking me in like one of his grandkids. He is and always will be Papa. I will love and miss him until my last days then I hope to see him living his biggest dreams with all the people who have gone before him. What an amazing reunion I imagine for him and the love of his life that he has missed for so long now. I'm sure momma was there with her other brothers and granny standing with open arms to greet him and welcome him to paradise.”
