“ He was my History and Home Room teacher at Jefferson Union High School with a crazy sense of humor that allways kept us on our toes.

On day at the end of class we were all getting to our lockers getting ready to go home. He was walking in front of me. One unruly classmate pushed me into him delibertly trying to get me into trouble.

I spun around and chewed him out for pushing.

Mr Acantilado caught on to what had happened, turned and said "I am leaving the room and when I returnl expect this to be settled".

As he left the room David missed a punch at me, but mine landed square on his nose.

That was the end of the pushing forever.

Mr. Acantilado reentered the room, sat down and asked David "are you ok".

End of story.

Mr. Acantilado was one of my favorite teachers.

“ Gus was one of my Dad's best friends. Gus, Jim Riley, and my dad Paul, were friends for over 50 years. And they were close.

Every year, while growing up in Steubenville, Ohio our family would get together with Gus & Mimi and their kids for special dinners, picnics, and other outings.

It was like having a second family. And for friends of 50 years to always stay in touch, and get together.... Well, it says a lot for how much they still meant to each other... Even over 5 decades.

Gus will be missed!

Our prayers and love go out to his family.

Love, Teresa, PJ, Michael, Jimmy, and Chrissy.
