“ To the family of Leo Pritchard, my thoughts and prayers are with you. Leo and I were friends on facebook for several years. We would chat about politics, our faith and our families. He was a good listener and gave great advice. I had been concerned for several years as he just seemed to disappear from facebook. Tonight, I found he has moved on to heaven. Heaven is surely a better place now, if that is even possible.

“ Leo was one of the first people I met when we moved to Sylvester in 1968. We lived across the lake from each other and we spent the next three years riding motorcycles and riding in the Gran Torino.
