“ My heart is broken , had some great memories with Billy. I was married to his first cousin Arthur and we use to sing and play music all night long.. Billy was the best man at our wedding in 1979, and after he and Sonia got Married they would come to our house in Elgin and we would play and sing all night, when my Son was born he always called him onion head because he was so bald!! Billy I hope your flying high with Angels and you had a great homecoming with your mama and daddy .. Love you and till we meet again R.I.P

“ We didn't know each other very long but I'll never forget how much you loved when I would paint something for you. Maybe now you're actually seeing the real mountains instead of the ones I made you.

“ I’m sorry to hear about Billy. I was married to his first cousin Roy Brown. The first Christmas I was around him he bought me a pair of house shoes and wrapped them in 2 separate packages and had me guessing what he had bought me. He thought that was so funny. He liked playing around with people. I hadn’t seen him in over 30 years until this past summer. I was so glad to get to see him again. Love and prayers. Berlie kay Brown Christian
