“ Boy, did Brad ever know how to push my button. And laughed the whole time he was doing it! But he was a good person with a good heart. He loved his family above all, and would do anything within reason for someone. His passing was untimely and heartwrenching, especially for his family. Brad was too young for this, and he will be missed.

“ He was a great friend of the family! Always put himself last and was thinking about others first! We will miss our weekends with him grilling out and joking about Rona excreta! He had a great love for animals and always kept us laughing with his sense of humor! Here is the last picture he sent me and Anthony from our 4th of July get together! RIP

“ I didn't know Brad for a very long time. I met him at Alchemy last year and I could sense that he was a kind man at heart. I enjoyed getting to know him and his and kids at Alchemy once a week for months. He was quick with a smile and to make jokes. He listened to you and one could tell if he enjoyed your presence. I was heartbroken to hear about his passing today. He and his family had been on my mind and heart for the last few months. He will be missed by many.

I may have not seen or met Brad personally due to my location. Brad is the husband of my niece Cher, they live in Georgia, while I live in the Philippines. I know that Brad is a very responsible father, a good provider not only in temporal things but also in spiritual and most of all love for his family. He is a very hardworking man...who will do anything and everything to be able to provide for his family. Brad, though we may have crossed our paths personally, please know that our memories will forever stay in our hearts...thank you for taking good care of Cher and Ann and Daniel..you did your best as a husband, a father and a friend. We love you.

"Death is only a temporary separation with our loved ones on earth and is only the beginning of a new life back to our Heavenly Father and our Savior Jesus Christ.

Families can be together forever!

Till we meet again !

“ My deepest and most sincere sympathy I give to Cher, Anna Mei, Daniel and family. I'm at a loss for words to adequately describe how much sorrow I feel for Brad's Family and friends. Brad was a true gentleman with a deep love for his family. We never spoke without Brad bragging on his wife and children. A man with honor and character of a sincere loving person. I will most miss our long talks of gardening, politics and overland traveling. the world is a little less bright today without this great man. I will miss you my friend.....

“ We met Brad at Poulan Methodist Church in 2006. This is how our friendship began and is still strong today. We have enjoyed a lot of fellowship with him and his beautiful family. He was so funny and always ready to lend a hand. We learned so much from him regarding his knowledge in growing vegetables. His family sure knew how to cook and we enjoyed a lot of meals together. They were always there for us in time of need. We are so heartbroken for Cher and their precious children. He loved God and his family so much. We know he is enjoying God's supper more than he loved Chuck's potato salad! Also, our children loved Brad and his family. We will miss you here on on earth and will be glad when we reunite in heaven with you one day. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family. We love y'all. “ My deepest sympathy I give to the family. I met Melvin and his beautiful family years back when they bought a few of my livestock for their farm. Melvin was a sweet spirited man who was a hard worker, full of smiles, and most of all loved his family dearly. He will be greatly missed.

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of the loss of my good friend. I've known Brad and his family a very long time. Brad and his family have been guest at my home and we've enjoyed time together with much conversation of the world we live in and his conservative beliefs. He was a great family man that loved his wife and kids deeply. I admired how he raised his children and how he cared for young people. He was very involved in scouting and teaching kids about the outdoors. I don't have the words to express what a loss this will be, not just for his family but to his friends and the community. Rest in peace my friend. I'll see you again and we'll continue those talks we enjoyed so very much.

“ For the short time I got to meet Brad I could tell that he was a Great man with a funny personality. I was looking forward to our next get together. He was way to young to be taken from this World and I pray for this wife and kids during this trying time. RIP my sweet friend.

“ What a sadness-and shock!-it is to know the world doesn't have Brad in it anymore. We homeschooled together in the FAMILIES co-op, and he was so much fun! It was so interesting the perspective a full-time homeschooling dad brought to our group. He obviously adored his wife and children and was very proud of all of them. I remember how he beamed with pride when he told me about any of their accomplishments.

Cher and kids, I will be praying for y'all.

“ I met Brad and his family at St Teresa's Catholic Church. He was always happy and wanting to help others. He helped my Mother to and from the car and even inside the Church. He was a kind person with a wonderful family. My Mother and I were lucky to call him and his family our friends. He will surely be missed. My condolences to the family.

“ Brad was a Gentle Giant, he was always ready to help you in any way he could. He loved his family and was always so proud to be able to share his feelings for his son and daughter of whom he was so proud! Cher, was the love of his life and together they made a wonderful family. We met Brad when he volunteered to help us move in to our home in Poulan in 2006. Our friendship grew from that time and he and his family became part of our family. I feel as though I have lost a son and my heart aches for Cher and the kids. RIP Brad, you will be truly missed💔

“ Charles and Fran Puryear: we were honored to live near the Melvin's for Two years. Charles pastored his church. Upon meeting the family for first time, they were all full of life and love for Lord. A ray of sunshine . Always welcoming. Gracious. Loving. All those things Jesus loves. No doubt Brad is with Jesus and we will see him again. My heart is breaking.
