“ Mrs. Brenda Henderson Jennings

“ I just heard of Brenda's passing a couple days ago, and found I was in complete shock! We only met about 3 years ago at a small Henderson gathering in Dothan, and following that, we share some minor genealogy information. I was looking forward to going to Sylvester to see some of the notes her father had collected over the years. Now I realize procrastination was a bad thing indeed.

I want to pass along my deepest sympathies to her family. I know she was loved and is already missed so deeply. You're in my prayers...

“ I have only been graced with meeting her, and seeing her maybe two or three times, but what I saw, and who I met, was a very strong beautiful soul with God in her heart, and heaven as her goal. While she didn't want to leave anyone, God saw a strong spiritual warrior that he needed more in heaven. That is my belief, and that she is in a special area where he keeps his true angels. You have my prayers for healing, and understanding God's reason for calling her home to where he hopes all follow her example of Jesus in her heart, to see her once again.
