“ Mrs Brenda Carroll was like a second mother to me from the time Dee and I met in 7th grade and became best friends. I probably spent more time at their house than I did my own - we would literally spend hours and hours and hours talking and seeking answers to all the crazy questions teenagers could ask - Mrs Carroll would always listen patiently and give Godly advice, and wisdom with a little humor along the way, too. She was the epitome of a kind and gracious Pastor's wife, mother, sister and friend. I loved her so much, and I am sincerely grateful she was a part of my journey here on earth. She was a beautiful, compassionate, and selfless soul who always treated me like part of her family - I will never forget her.
