“ Dear Children and family of Marjorie Robinson. She was a wonderful servant of the Lord. I know you shall miss her but be assured she is in Heaven with her heavenly Father and all her kin that proceeded her. I always enjoyed visiting with her as I passed through the lunchroom. My favorite memory of Marjorie is the time she invited me to a Sacred Harp sing in Crisp County at a Primitive Baptist Church. The singing was enjoyable and the "dinner on the grounds" was exceptional. May God surround you with his love at this time and in the years to come. In Christian Love, Dr. Thomas G. Latimer and Carolyn (wife)

“ Dear Lamar, Myrtice & Bob, Jon & Kay, Bonnie, grandchildren, great-children and great-great-grandchildren:

Please accept my condolences on the passing of a very dear and sweet person! I will be praying for the all of you. Aunt Marjorie was a wonderful woman. I remember her beautifully decorated cakes that were always so good. I love you and May God Bless you and provide the comfort and peace for you all during your time of loss. You have many memories to cherish!

Sincerely,

Jerry Golden
