“ I remember the very first moment (literally) that I saw Cager's face. It was the first day of 4th grade in Mr. Deariso's class at Holly Elementary. Per usual, I walked in late that day. Cager was always kind to me, and I appreciated that about him. My condolences to those close to him.

“ Darlene and family,

Death often seems quite unfair and unreasonable. When deprived of more time with those we love, we must believe the same. As the Bible so eloquently states, "There is a time to be born, a time to die, a time to grieve, a time to dance." We never know how God keeps time, so we must live every second as if we don't have another. I know the days ahead or going to be hard. Even though Cager is physically gone, he will continue living in your heart and memories. You all will be in our thoughts and prayers.

Cager, you were one of a kind. A wonderful friend to me who never failed to shake hands and say whats up. You were an awesome student of mine some years back. Losing you just breaks my heart. I will miss you. You have now seen those gates and meet our Lord and Savior. Rest well Brother and see you soon one day. Love ye. Jimbo.
