“ Elizabeth, though I have not seen you recently, I think of you often and smile. You were always so kind and pleasant in Sunday School. I hated to see your husband's obituary today. I am so very sorry for you and your family. Please accept my deepest sympathy. I miss seeing you and hope our paths cross again soon. Love, Elizabeth Cowles

Elizabeth you are such a wonderful caring person. I just want you to know how much we love you and Charles. I thank God for all the dinners and drives we all had together. Just so much fun so much laughter. I was able to see what a good man Charles really was. He really had a heart of gold. He was firm but he was hiding his soft heart, I seen it many times always willing to help someone that would help themselves. He loved his wife and children. One thing for sure he put on no Aires; you knew if he liked you are not. A man of few words. I do miss him and will miss him. Who will I agitate now, I could really get his goat, but he always laughed about it for some reason he put up with it. I think we enjoyed each other's company. The auctions were a blast. I did not know how much I loved him; you never do. Not only a brother but a friend. Our prayers are to; Please Lord Ease Elizabeth and family's pain because you have him now and they will see him again. Please keep us in mind for help with any needs.

*With all our Love

Amen, to all of the above. Such a nice guy & such a extremely hard worker. I will cherish the great memories at our auctions and eating at the hospital.

*Love ya Elizabeth,
Debbie Smith Bryan*
