

Ms. Charlotte Hart

June 18, 1959 - April 19, 2023

Charlotte Hart, 63, passed away Wednesday, April 19, 2023, at her home in Cartersville, Georgia after a hard-fought battle with cancer. She was determined to beat it and fought until the very end, passing in the early morning with family by her side.

Charlotte was cremated and a graveside memorial service will be held at 11:00 AM on Saturday, May 13, 2023 at the Poulan Cemetery. Dr. Jason Jones will officiate.

A celebration with food and stories will be held immediately after at the Worth County Shrine Club (3380 US 82, Sylvester, GA 31791).

Charlotte was born on June 18, 1959, in Sylvester, to the late George Wright and Lillie Key Hart. She eventually made her way to Cartersville, Georgia in 1990. Charlotte spent most of her adult life in the service and hospitality industry, primarily as a server. Charlotte was a member of New Bethel Baptist Church in Worth County.

She is survived by her children and their spouses Keith Lee (Ashley) and Allison Caldwell (Tyler); grandchildren, Tyler Lanham, Tanner Lanham (Maggie), Tara Lanham, Levi Caldwell, Sawyer Lee, Trevor Lanham, Kylie Caldwell, and Parker Lee; siblings Nancy Kinard, Craig Hart, Monnie Hart (Vicki), and Michelle Andrews (Scott); five nephews and nieces Jason Doggett (Carrie), Greta Owens, Chance Andrews (Laura), April Clinton (Michael), and Ashton Andrews (Haley); and two pets, Marley and Samson. Charlotte is also survived by a community full of siblings, children, and grandchildren.

Charlotte never met a stranger as strangers quickly became friends and those friends would eventually become family.

In addition to her parents, Charlotte was preceded in death by her sister, Charlene Doggett on February 24, 2020.

For those desiring, please make memorials to the Worth County Masonic Lodge #194 F & AM or to the Worth County Shrine Club at P.O. Box 1 Sylvester, Georgia. 31791.
