“ Richard & Family,
Please accept our deepest sympathies in the loss of your father. Clyde was a good man with a giving spirit. He will be missed by the community and all who knew him. Kathy and I have many fond memories of Clyde during the short time we have known him. Clyde always had a smile and a kind word whenever he was present. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Every year for at least 35 years, Mr. Clyde bought a “Bryan and Jordan” ad on the football / cheerleader calendar. When I walked in the door, he reached for his checkbook. I’m not sure he ever even went to a football game, but he was always a generous willing supporter. The world needs more kind, pleasant people like Mr. Clyde. He will be missed. Your family has my greatest sympathy, Richard.
