“ I grew up with Cindy and Diane we land across the street from each other. We used to go to church together she was more like a sister to me her and Diane and neighbors. Her mother is Annette would tell everyone that I was her adopted daughter I will truly miss Cindy. When we were growing up if you seen Sandy you see me we will get upset with each other at times but he didn't last an hour and we were asking each other to forgive each other she is truly I miss friend and I never have fun as special to my heart and she is. Cindy I will see you again in heaven tell your mom and my mom and dad and your dad ha for me cuz I know you're up there and all God's arms I love you I miss you forever
