“ I recently shared lunch and a walk at the river with David and his dogs. He was considering coming to work with me. David had so much love for his wife and daughter. He shared so many beautiful memories of Heather with me. He knew just what she would say at any given moment. David was so full of love and pride when he spoke of Ava. She was such a source of light for him. He wanted so badly to fill the hole in her heart that was left when her mother passed and he was constantly doing everything in his power to give her everything she needed. I pray that Ava finds some peace and that she knows, without any doubt, how much she was loved by both of her parents. ❤️
