“ Cindy and Shea it was a blessing to have known your dad. The last time I saw him was when your mom was alive and she told me to wait so she could get him out of truck to see me because every time I'd see her she was usually alone. She'd tell him I asked about him and he'd say he'd wished he'd came. They both meant a lot to me growing up coming to your house, in church or in later years as I'd see them out and about. He was the one that taught me the trick with the toes and I still remember it. I am so sorry for your loss. Prayers for each of you and your families.
