“ My heart is broken he was like a brother to me. My daddy sure loved Duck. Until he could no longer get out and go by himself he would go where Duck was working and drive the truck to help him in hay. Duck was a special man my family and extended family love him. He would do anything to help anyone that needed help. Rest in peace my friend and brother until we see each other again.

“ From Hog n bones breakfast to Friday night steak nights at Ed's ... from Sunday jeep riding, picking strawberries and eating Strawberry ice cream to baling hay we had a lot of fun and good times. Made a lot of memories! We laughed we cried and we even got mad with each other sometimes but through it all you were my pops and I was your baby girl. My heart hurts but I know you're in a better place. You will be truly missed. Watch over us up there until we meet again

Duck was such a sweet friend to my late husband, Carl May. When Carl was in the nursing home, he would look forward to Duck's visit on Sunday afternoon and that chocolate milk shake. He was a friend for several years and always enjoyed serving others.
