“ I hope Donna knew just how much she was loved!! I'm going to miss her and all her shenanigans! She made me laugh a lot and sometimes she made me cry thinking about what she was going through. But I know she is with her mama and daddy now and she won't hurt anymore. No more dialysis, no more surgeries and I hope you can eat anything you want now.

My life forever changed when I met you at Queen Carpet. I'll never forget the great times we had there and many yrs after. You had a smile for everyone, even on the worst days. Life got more harder than you deserved, God has healed it all. Prayers for the family, take comfort in knowing Donna was loved by everyone who knew her.

“ This breaks my heart. Donna was my lifeline to Worth County and I am going to miss her terribly. I am however glad that she is no longer in pain or distress and that she going to be together again with her father and mother and all of those that she loved and passed before her. Rest in peace, Donna.
