“ My deepest sympathies to the immediate family for their loss. Dear Aunt Dorothy, you will be missed. Used to love her homemade peanut brittle... I have several summertime memories coming up to stay with Momo & Papa and going over to see Aunt Dorothy! She has now joined the rest of the angels, including my Momma, (Nita Cross Shafford) & Papa (Bernard Cross). We Love you, Aunt Dorothy.

“ I am very sorry that Miss Dorothy has passed. But, she is with Bud now, and no more pain. When George and I were renting that house from her, she was the kindest person, letting us get veggies from her HUGE garden, giving us ice from her huge ice machine, and other small kindnesses. God Bless her, and look after her family too. Love and Misses, Karen Stokes (Rambo)

“ Melvin and I want to let you all know we know how you feel. We have been there; however, we want you to know we care for all of you. We are praying for all the children and grandchildren. This is a particularly had time for all of you. It will only be a few days, and Mother will have been gone for 19 years. It is still like yesterday sometimes. Just look up and God will handle the rest. Love to you all.
