“ Dot was a wonderful friend and loving neighbor. She spoke to every person she meet and did anything she could to help you. "She said that was why God had her on this earth. She would take me on rides and show me where the family had grown up, worked and went to school in TyTy, she loved to drive. We talked at least twice a day, about children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, I truly miss and loved her, and will miss seeing Little Man and her going by my house on their daily drive, Dot you have been a blessing to the Dahn family
