“ Duane was a Good and kind man, Great Brother —never a harsh or a bad word to say to or about no one always smiling. He had a way of making everyone feel welcome and cared for. Truly the absolute best brother anyone could ask for. Duane would help anybody with anything and expect nothing in return, He was a GOOD Man. Pat, thank you for standing by your man with unwavering love and strength through every doctor appointment, every treatment, and every hard day of his battle with prostate cancer. You walked this journey beside him to the very end—through sickness, uncertainty, and exhaustion—when it would have been easy to walk away, but you never did. Your commitment, sacrifice, and care are a true testament to the depth of your love and the strength of your heart. We will always be grateful for you, and we will always miss you, Duane. Miss you, Brother.

“ Duane was a kind, gentle man—quick with a smile and an “I love y'all.” He was the absolute best brother-in-law anyone could ask for, and I am so grateful to have had him in my life. Thank you, Pat, for standing faithfully by his side through every challenge, especially in his last season of life. Your strength, love, and devotion were a true gift to Duane and an inspiration to all of us. Miss you, buddy. You will always be loved and remembered.

“ I thank God for choosing you to be the father of our 3 children. The one that we never got to see and hold. But I know you are seeing him or her now. Thank you for showing our kids how a man is supposed to be devoted to his wife and family. And you did it with grace and integrity. You showed them how hard work really hurt nobody. Your compassion and kindness and not wanting to hurt others especially our children when they deserved to be corrected for something they did wrong. Because it hurt you more than it did them. Just shows what a big heart you have. And that's one of the things that I loved about you. Your laughter and sense of humor will never be forgotten. The way you had love for everyone and would do anything for anyone says a lot about your character. My family loved you and still made you apart of family get togethers even after we divorced. It didn't matter to them because you would always be welcomed. That's how much you meant to people. And when my mom was taking her last breath she was telling us who she wanted her pallbearers to be and she chose you! That speaks volumes on the type of man you were. I'm very thankful that you were apart of half my life. And you shown me how to be loved and you shown our kids more importantly. I will always be grateful just knowing I could call or text you and you would be there with whatever the kids and I needed. Thank you for lets showing our kids how to co parent and still be able to give them both parents and stability without having to choose one parent over the other. Until we meet again! You will never be forgotten! Rest in peace now!

“ I have known Duane for a little of over 2 years but it seems like a lifetime. He was a very dedicated and loyal employee and loved his job. One of the sweetest and humblest people I have ever known. We had many talks in my office. We here at Olam Edible Nuts will miss you, but your spirit will remain with us. I am glad I was able to visit and speak with you, right before Christmas.
