“ I did not know Dustin or I do not know his family, but when I say this story on the News this morning I was sadden. My prayers will be with the family at this time of sorrow. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. May God keep you and continue to bless you is my prayer. Felicia Crapp Sylvester, Ga.

“ I am in deep shock and very saddened by the Hammonds family lost, I was a good friend of Kim when I attended WCHS and know at this very moment she is showering her son with love and affection. As a parent I could not bear the lost of my kids and believe no parent should experience what you all have been through the years. I cried when I heard of Kims passing and feel just as sadden for her son. may god bless you all

“ *It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments,
the smiles, the laughter.
And although it may seem hard right now,
it will be the memories of these little things that help to push
away the pain
and bring the smiles back again.*
