“ To the Etheredge family:I cannot express to you enough how much I will miss Scott. I had the pleasure of meeting him shortly after I moved to Oxford and started attending Oxford First UMC. We clicked right away. He helped me with preparations for Vacation Bible School with the kids. We worked alongside one another with Soup for the Soul. We crocheted every Thursday morning for 2 hours with other members from our church - swapping stories, jokes, animal funnies, you name it. I am thankful for the gift of his friendship, and please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all. God bless you Scott and family.

“ I've been seeing the posts on FB but didn't know what had happened until seeing the obituary. Words cannot express the sadness and sorrow I know you must be facing now. I lost my only brother when he was only 15 and remember the grief my parents suffered during that time. No parent should ever have to experience this. My thoughts and prayers are with you along with my heartfelt sympathy. Lovingly, Joan
