“ Not so long ago we were in high school together, but as life on earth goes, it seems a life time ago. I pray for the love ones left behind, they will have peace of mind that Joe is in a better place, and some day we all will see Joe again. Boyd

“ Joe and his family are from our small community of Redrock. Joe and I had the opportunity to go to high school together, and Billy has known Joe all his life. Even though we lost communication through the years after school, Billy and I have had the opportunity to cross paths with Joe a few times the past couple of years. We went to see him Sunday, but he was resting and never knew we were there. Looking at the pictures on the wall in his room brought back a lot of memories. I pray his family will always remember and cherish the good times in Joe's life.
