“ My father in law was a delight to anyone who met him. He and my mother in law made friends with many over the years. I deem it a great privilege to have been made a part of their family in marrying their middle child, Tony. Tony and I were blessed to have shared a dwelling with him the last almost 2 years of his life. We are going to miss him more than words or gesture can express. Rest easy, rest well, rejoice, dance, sing, worshipping the Lord, dear dad. We will see you again one day. 🙏

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Eugene's passing. I worked with him at Firestone. I was a young 18 year and he was one of the first people along with his brother Medford that welcomed me and took me under their wings who trained and taught me how to do my job and to deal with difficult situations.

He was a good man.
