“ I found 5/8's obituary online about two years after he passed. I met 5/8 on the bus to Parris Island in the summer of 1975. We were in the same platoon in boot camp, 366. I remember both of us being in the aggressor squad in the series war games. He stole the rifles of two other recruits that were asleep while they were on guard duty. Our Drill Instructors were so proud of him for doing that and not getting caught. I ran in to 5/8 in the late 1980's when he came to the pulp mill I was working at. He was working with a paint contractor that was repainting the ceiling in the area where I worked. It was great to see him again. I hope his family is doing well
