“ My Dad was one of the most amazing people I have ever known. He was strong, a hard worker, and loved life in general. He loved his family and loved being around people, and people that met him loved being around him. He sure will be missed, Much love to you always, now go rest easy at the right hand. Heaven got a great one. Sissy Gaughf Burke

“ Franklin was my 1st cousin once removed and he and his family were an important part of my growing-up in Poulan. I am very proud that we were able to visit with him a short while ago at his retirement party and visit with his family. I am glad to see he will be laid to rest at Red Oak along with my paternal grandparents and other relatives.
