“ Mr Fred was a very remarkable man who could bring a smile to your face by walking in the room or should I say the restaurant! He was a joy to wait on a Ed's esp if a new person came in the door that we didn't know he made sure we did before he/she left the building. Rest in peace sweet man we love you and will truly miss your smiling face at the GOSSIP table at Ed's

“ My deepest condolences to Mr. Fred's family. I cleaned his house a few times and worked for Mr. Hal and Mrs. Priscilla for a couple of years. He was a delightful fellow. He always would have me smiling before I left his presence. He loved his grandchildren and would always talk to me about their accomplishments. May God bless his family in this time of grief.

“ Hal, Janet, and Cindy, I appreciate you allowing me to help care for Mr. Fred. I will miss his stories, his winks, and him pointing his finger at me. Most of all, I'm going to miss him asking for my hand so that he could kiss it. He became family to me and he will always have a special place in my heart!
