“ I have great memories growing up playing baseball with Gary Jr. and having Mr. Parker throwing batting practice to us, helping us become not only better athletes, but better individuals. I really enjoyed learning the aspects of pitching from Mr. Parker. He was so impactful in our small community and helped mold so many of us and left lasting impression on us all. RIP

“ Parker family, I am so sorry for the loss of Gary. George and I shopped at Badcock quite a bit and while talking to Gary I learned we were both Miami Dolphins and Dan Marino fans. Each time I was in the store Gary and I would talk about the games we had attended. That has been a few years back but we always enjoyed talking football. I know you will all miss Gary. God bless you all in your time of sorrow.

I was sorry to hear of Gary passing. I've known the Parker and Olive families for many years as an associate Badcock Furniture Dealer since the early 80's. Gary and I had many of talks about baseball, golf and the best quarterback ever, Dan Marino. His love of these sports was clearly evident. Customer service was on the top of his business list. I know his family and community will miss him greatly. Jack Noda
