“ I have always loved Geoffrey and his sweet family. Who does t love them? Several years ago I was about my morning duties when I realized there was no hot water-- none. My church is my family. So I called the church (Acree). Stacey answered and I told her my delemia. She said, let me make a few calls and see what I can do. With an hour or so, Geffrey comes to my house. It was a process to drain the hot what's heater. Then Geoffrey went to get new elements. I helped him all I could, which wasn't much. End of the story, I had hot water. He would not even let me pay for the elements. Just make a donation to the church, he said. And that I did. There was another time he checked on an outside light. He would not take any money. Make a donation to the church he said. Geoffrey was a giving man: one you could listen to, one you could respect. I will always remember his kindness and the love he had for his family.

“ Shannon and Alexis, I was shocked to hear the news of Geoffrey's death. I got the call today after the funeral service. Our prayers are with you both and the family. He was a great husband and father and I know that the two of you were the center of his world after his relationship with the Lord. If we can do anything to help you through this time please do not hesitate to call me. Clayton
