

Mr. George Woodfin Etheredge Sr.

January 15, 1925 - August 27, 2020

Mr. George Woodfin Etheredge, Sr., 95 of Sylvester died Thursday August 27, 2020 at Pruitt Health Care in Albany.

The graveside service will be held at 2:00 PM on Sunday August 30, 2020 at Kimball United Methodist Church Cemetery. The Rev. Todd Brooks will officiate.

Mr. Etheredge was born on January 15, 1925 in Anderson City to the late George Hill and Mittie Mae Cannon Etheredge. He had lived in Worth County most of his life and was a United States Army Veteran having served in WWII. Mr. Etheredge was the former owner/operator of Etheredge Service Station and was a member of Evergreen Baptist Church. He enjoyed fishing, going to the beach and the mountains, but most importantly he enjoyed spending time with his family.

Survivors include his children, George W. Etheredge, Jr., of Anderson City; Jeana Etheredge Blair and Ed Etheredge both of Leesburg; grandchildren, Woodfin Etheredge (Summer), Tamara B. Shrable (Beau) and Wilder Etheredge; great grandchildren, Brock Shrable and Zoey Etheredge.

In addition to his parents Mr. Etheredge was preceded in death by his wife, Vedia Carolyn West Etheredge on March 2, 2013.

“ What great memories I have of Mr George. He was a great personal friend and also to the GSP in Albany. It was quite an event to have Jeana lock me inside George’s fish pond! Deepest sympathy to the family.
