“ Darlene, I am so sorry for your loss? The few times we met I was truly inspired by his upbeat attitude knowing just a bit of the pain and suffering he lived with for so long. Take care of yourself and know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers during the next months.

“Darlene, I am sooo sorry for your loss. Tony was amazing! Always so upbeat & happy, no matter what life threw at him. You have been an excellent wife, so supportive & caring to him...an inspiration! I know you will be lost without him. Send me your e-mail address please so that we can keep in touch. I have looked on Facebook for you before but I didn't see you were on there. My cell number is 256-689-8042 & the best e-mail to get me at is Sharon-Crandall@burfordstree.com (work). Personal e-mail is SharonmCrandall@gmail.com but I don't check that one very much & it's always filled with junk mail. I'd hate to miss yours. Again, my heart & prayers are with you. If I had known in time, I would have tried to make it to his funeral. If you ever need me, I am just a phone call away! Love you so much!! Sharon McCord

“Darlene,
First of all, I am so sorry for your loss and I feel badly writing to you here. I am hoping that this is the correct Darlene Fambro that I have been looking for? If it is, you and I were friends back in Hapeville, GA. and you were my "maid of honor" when John and I married. I was cleaning out a closet today and came across a letter from you (return address was Fambro, Dallas, Texas?) I have hunted for you numerous times, but always under the name Darlene Ryan and couldn't find you?
I would so love to get back in touch? Please email me or find me on Facebook (I looked for you there also, and couldn't find you?)
Again, I am sincerely sorry for the loss of your husband.
Wishing you all the best,
Pat
