

Mrs. Helen Ellenburg Narred

February 8, 1931 - January 31, 2021

Mrs. Helen Ellenburg Narred, 89 of Poulan, died on Sunday, January 31, 2021 at her residence.

The funeral service will be held at 2:00 PM on Tuesday, February 2, 2021 at Banks Funeral Home Chapel, interment will follow in the Poulan Cemetery. The Rev. Freddie White will officiate.

Mrs. Narred was born on February 8, 1931 in Sand Springs OK., to the late John C. and Rosa Mae Richardson Ellenburg. She had lived in Worth County most of her life and was retired from Avondale Mills where she worked as winder Operator. Mrs. Narred was previously employed with Coats and Clark and later became the librarian for Poulan Library for many years. Mrs. Narred never met a stranger and would take care of anyone who was in need of help. She enjoyed reading and shopping, but most importantly spending time with her friends and family, especially her grand, great grand, and great great grandchildren. Mrs. Narred was a member of Poulan Baptist Church.

Survivors include her sons, Larry Narred and Johnny Narred both of Poulan, and Andy Narred (Jan) of Lake Park, GA; 7 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren and 5 great great grandchildren; sister, Hazel Hufstetler of Sand Springs, OK; brother, Leroy Ellenburg of Bull Head City, AZ; step sisters, Carolyn and Cathy;

In addition to her parents, Mr. Narred was preceded in death by her husband, James Edward Narred on September 20, 1993; sister, Dollie Gay.

The family will receive friends on Tuesday from 1:00 PM until the service hour at Banks Funeral Home.

“ Favorite memory of mine is when Helen professed faith in Christ and was saved. She walked to Poulan Baptist church confessed her desire to pastor Billy Barker. She came to me and asked that I would stand with her after her baptism as the church received her. Pat Narred
