“ Debra and family, we are so sorry for your loss. I talked to Mr. Herbert a couple months ago when he came out to our house. He was the first person to give me an job in high school through the work- study program. I walked from the old high school out to the bus shop in Isabella each day. He was a super cool man to say the least. Our thoughts and prayers are with y'all. Tony and Marcia Johnson

“ I can't express in any number of words what Herbert meant to me and his nephew, Wayne Castleberry, now deceased. He was a godsend to me after Wayne passed. I loved him and Addie Mae very much. I will do anything for her. With all my love, thoughts and prayers. You will be missed by me and my family.

“ Such a sweet and loving man. I always enjoyed being around you and taking you to the doctor and hospital when needed. It made me feel good that you needed me. I could talk to you better than my own daddy. I don't know if you really heard me all the time but you acted like you did. The last words you said to me was , "I am sure going to miss you." Well I will miss you too. Me and Jim love you very much! RIP Pops!
