“ So sorry to hear about JR he was alwayd a kind man to my children and I. This hurts because I know a friend that he his her father and she was not even listed in the obituary. Prayers for her and her sister at this time

Prayers for your friend and her sister,Amanda. His daughter, Debbie was my best friend in middle school when J.R. and her mother were married. Debbie and her sister are his first biological children, I spent many nights at their home when they lived in Ashburn. Neither of those girls were listed in the obituary either.

I just saw this. I am actually the other daughter, Kelli. Thank you for the kind words. Wild to know siblings exist you don't know. But then again he walked away when I was 7. I tried for years to be a part of his life. I spent the night with granny again when I was a little older and that was the last time I saw him until my 20s when I tried to talk to him & told him all I wanted was my kids to know their papa. My kids were toddlers then. Now they are grown with toddlers.

“ to Judy and children, I want you to know that J.R., was a very good friend and neighbor,he was very comforting to talk too. He was a working man and every time I came by he would wave and keep on working. He really believed in keeping everything clean and neat looking. I know you will miss him dearly. He has found him a place in Heaven with the Lord. Jimmy and Gail Snipes
