“ Aunt Jackie was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever met with such a wonderful smile. She had such a warm, endearing personality. She had so many interesting stories and was great at conversation. Brandon and Charli loved the time they spent with her. Our hearts go out to Uncle Tommy and all those who will surely miss her so.

“ My aunt Jackie was such a kind, sweet, upbeat and open-hearted person, and I was blessed to have her as an aunt. I have so many wonderful memories of her, most of them highlighting her great sense of humor -- One Christmas Eve, she walked into my aunt Joyce's house and immediately started to laugh hysterically. We all looked at her and wondered if she had already been into the delicious rum balls she brought. It turned out she had arrived wearing two completely different shoes (different colors, different styles) and was so amused with herself that she hadn't noticed! Speaking of her shoes, she also had great taste and always looked so beautiful. She loved her family and she also dearly loved dogs - a trait that definitely influenced my love for dogs. Her dogs were like her children, as she spoiled them and even cooked for them (something I also do!). She was well travelled and very intelligent, being able to speak several different languages. She helped me learn a bit of French and I would try to use that in conversations with her. It's hard to shortly summarize how wonderful my aunt Jackie was. She led such an intriguing life and had so many unique experiences that she shared with us. She will definitely be missed by her family and everyone who came into contact with her. Je t'aime, aunt Jackie
