Awe, your Dad was a funny guy, always liked that if my dad was not at the counter at the junk yard, and I had walked all the way from the house, he would give me money for the soda machine, so it wouldn't be a long, thirsty trip back to the house!

Lou Giddens was my 3rd cousin if I am right and if not then I will just say we were kind to each other. I know him to be one of the hardest working men I ever knew. He always provided for his family. He will truly be missed by all. RSP LOU you deserve it cuz.
