“ I only knew Mr. James for maybe a year, but that year was filled with many good memories and laughs. I met him through my landlord Larry & Shelia Matthews, Mr. James was very close to them, came over there almost everyday either on his scooter or in his car. We played his favorite card game Canasta on Friday nights, which he always beat us. He had the funniest jokes I have ever heard that would make you laugh till your stomach hurt. He was a good man and he will be missed dearly.
