“ Jane and I were Special Education Directors for years. She went to GSCW with my sister when I was 10 and I always knew her as Scotty. It thrilled me, twenty-five years later, to sit in a GLRS meeting and hear the name Jane Landrum. I could not have asked for a better friend in education and will miss her so much. Loved to watch her play poker after our conference meetings were over and the four close Directors would get out the cards and when a game was won you would hear Jane say "sum beach" and everyone would laugh!!

“ Jane was a funny, open and warm person. Her long-time partner Katie and she could light up a room with their mischievous laughter and eyes. Their devoted to one another was inspiring for all who knew them. They broke walls down and changed peoples views of what some had considered taboo. God bless you, Jane. Im so very sorry for your loss, Katie.
