“ I remember playing with Janis Hufstetler when she lived across Albany Hwy. from my grandmother Fowler. We were very young at that time and enjoyed playing together. I am saddened to hear of her passing. May God bless her family.

RIP sweet Jan. I remember the good times we all enjoyed growing up and playing together at our grandparents house. There was always a yard full of cousins. Your passing will leave a big void in the lives of those that loved you.

Jan was one of my momma's close friends. I remember how much I enjoyed visiting her home and my brothers loved to play with her boys. Great childhood memories. Love to her family.
