

Miss Jennifer Lynn Gay

July 14, 1966 - July 17, 2025

Miss Jennifer Lynn Gay, 59, of Sylvester received her wings and took flight on July 17, 2025 and was carried away to her heavenly home just after sunrise. She was the only child of Marsha Carol Watson Gandy. Jennifer lived with her mother in Sylvester.

Jennifer was the granddaughter of Samuel Marshall Watson, War Department Chemist; Carolyn Bass Watson Dickens and Clifton William Dickens. They were all members of the WWII-Greatest Generation.

She was born on July 14, 1966 in Albany, Georgia. Following graduation, Jennifer attended business school and then was employed by GTE-General Telephone & Electronics as an Executive Secretary in their corporate. In 1996, her health began to decline. Jennifer loved dogs and cats. She was a fabulous cook and adored home and antiques. Her favorite flowers were Roses, Bearded Iris, and Gladiolus. Jennifer had her own flower garden and enjoyed mowing. She always said "I do my best thinking and praying when I'm mowing grass."

Jennifer was predeceased by her grandparents Samuel Marshall Watson, Carolyn Bass Watson Dickens and Clinton William Dickens; Great Grandparents, Lillie Belle Houston Bass and John Everett Bass of Sylvester, Samuel Morgan Watson and Golden Ward Watson; Special Cousins Garland Crowe Dupree and Dawn Dupree Stone.

Survivors include her mother, Marsha Carol Watson Gandy; Most Special Cousin, Norman and Donna Crowe; Dearest Friends, Deloris Brown Jenkins;

Donna and Davis King, Luke and Brittany Hagan; Lifelong Best Friend, Richard who Jennifer affectionately referred to as "Ricky Ricardo"; and her Dedicated Caregiver Bertha Fowler.

A private graveside will be held at the Oakfield Baptist Church Cemetery with Mrs. Deloris Brown Jenkins officiating.

"Nothing stays the same, nothing last forever, but I remember when and now it is all gone with the wind"

Jennifer's Mother's first quote.
