“ So many sweet memories as kids playing together at grannies and your hilarious jokes when we found each other again. We lost touch through the years for a little while but I recall how excited we both were when we found each other again. We stayed up well into the morning catching up and reflecting on memories and you talking about your cats! You tried your best to convince me to get one. I recall the day I had to call you when I got lost in Valdosta and you helped me navigate with that humor and we were gonna meet up for lunch but something came up for you. You still had me laughing though. I am going to miss you my dear sweet cousin along with your great big bear hugs. You have touched so many lives with your huge heart, infectious smile, personality and your love. We all love you Jeremy and will miss you.

“ Jeremiah was the sweetest kindest person that I have ever met. He is my cousin but our relationship was much more than I could have ever asked for. We were there for each other no matter what and I knew he always had my back and he knew I was always there for him. He has been such a great influence on my kids and our family. This world will never be the same without him. Rest In Peace sweetheart, I love you so much. God bless his family.

“ Like many can agree, Jeremiah was one of the most caring, helpful people many of us had ever had the pleasures of meeting. His outgoing personality even when things were tough was contagious! He will truly be missed.

My heart aches in indescribable pain for my precious Jeremy. Through the years he made me laugh a lot and pray hard. I was amazed at his ability and heart to learn, and to share that knowledge with others. He finally got the opportunity to teach - something he had wanted to do since high school. He loved interacting with his students. His love for kids and people in general was genuine. I trust the heart of God that he is in control and knows what's best. He sees the bigger picture. Though we don't know what happened, I know God was close. I'll miss him more than words could ever tell. My heart, my joy, my only son. I'll forever love you.
