“ Jessica you will definitely be missed. I'm glad you had a chance to see "our" son before you left us. I'll be sure to tell him about his sweet auntie Jessica and all the crazy times we had (when he's able to understand). To the family my deepest condolences, just know that she was loved by everyone she came across, however God loves her more. Take care.

“ Jessica was a good and caring friend, going out of her way to look after those less fortunate than she. Many days, she would go by the store before checking in @ dialysis to get "treats" for patients who were immobilized by their condition(s). She was sweet and feisty, especially when confronted by what she considered unfair treatment. She was a good friend; the highest compliment I can pay any person. Miss you, Kiddo! Jessica, I firmly believe God has a mission for you in heaven, where you will bask in His loving arms. May God bless you and your family and grant them all fair winds and following seas.
