“ Brad, I'm so sorry for your loss. You were her pride and joy. I first met you and her when you were in first grade. Your mother and I were great friends. She was an awesome hairdresser. I didn't have to do a thing but sit in that chair and I knew I would have a great do when I left. I messed her when she retired and often bemoaned the illness that took her from us way too soon. Praying for you as you face the difficult days ahead.

“ Brad, Your mother was much more than my hairdresser. She was my trusted friend. I loved her! I have missed her since she retired and will continue to think of her often in the future. She was smart, funny, great at her profession, and kind. My deepest sympathy is for you, Brad, and for her siblings. You are all in my prayers
