“ There are so many its hard to choose one but the one that stands out is :..... You and I were riding in your big black truck I must have been about ten years old you were renewing your vows at a church in bloomfield u looked over at me and told me your vows that you wrote what stands out is you were so smooth with the delivery when it was just me but the true person you were came out when you had to do it in front of everybody you cried while saying them and so did everybody else but you spoke from your heart . To be honest I didn't realize what it took for you to do that at the time but now I know you were being John the John we all knew you were a big man with an enormous heart soft as a teddy bear and I know you didn't know that I remember this but it stands out because that was the first time I ever saw a grown man cry as I cry writing this I love you John and always will I miss you see you when I get there .
